MERRY X-RAY UPDATES ONLINE ORDERING SITE

The place for Radiology Supplies online

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA – December 15, 2014 ó Merry X-Ray Corporation is pleased to announce an update to the online radiology supply ordering site.

The online ordering site at supplies.merryxray.com has undergone some changes in the last few months. Product images and descriptions have been added and updated. New products for Chiropractic and sports medicine have been added. More products are to come.

Customers can order online, get pricing, invoices, reports, view order history and create order lists for quick and easy re-ordering. Creating great self-service tools on the site will be on-going. Current Merry X-Ray / SourceOne customers can get an online account set up by visiting the site with their account number.
